

August 12, 2024

Administrative Interpretation of Regional Transportation Functional Plan, 2024-1

Guidance for Transportation System Plans, Community Plans, Concept Plans and Corridor Plans on outdated Regional Transportation Plan references in the Regional Transportation Functional Plan

The table below provides a crosswalk for outdated Regional Transportation Plan references contained in the Regional Transportation Functional Plan. Local governments should cite the 2023 Regional Transportation Plan references shown below when preparing Regional Transportation Functional Plan findings and other planning documents.

2010 RTP Reference	2023 RTP Reference
2035 RTP	...the most recent adopted RTP...
Chapter 2	Chapter 3
Figure 2.15	Figure 3.24
Table 2.6	Table 3.6 and Table 3.8
Section 2.5.2	Section 3.3.3
Figure 2.12	Figure 3.21
Green Streets: Innovative Solutions for Stormwater and Street Crossings (2002) and Trees for Green Streets: An Illustrated Guide (2002)	Designing Livable Streets and Trails Guide (2019)
Creating Livable Streets: Street Design Guidelines for 2040 (2nd Edition, 2002)	Designing Livable Streets and Trails Guide (2019)

Thank you,

Ted Leybold

Transportation Policy Director
Metro Planning, Development and Research Department