enhance existing communities. As part of this work, Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties and Metro led a regional effort to identify land for urban or rural use for the next half century.

Urban reserves are lands currently outside the urban growth boundary that are suitable for accommodating urban development over the next 50 years.

for the next 50 years.

On 08/19/2011 the Oregon Land Conservation and Development Commission (LCDC) acknowledged (approved) the revised urban and rural reserves map for Washington County. Reserves for Multnomah and Clackamas counties were approved previously.
